Preamble

I am Muslim Hear me Roar , in numbers too Big to Ignore ... I am Strong, I am invincible, I am the Victim - I am Woman - Dum, de Dum Dum.

<https://x.com/GadSaad/status/1715798730232783135> Gad Saad -You are not going to like this tweet so turn away if you are likely to be triggered:

I am a very optimistic person; I am a fighter for Western values and liberties; I am a dogged defender of science, reason, and common sense. I must say though that I am unsure that the West can recover from its multifront civilizational suicide. Yes, I've talked about these issues for decades and wrote a book about it but the past few weeks have crystallized the extent to which the problem has become intractable. It will be a long and ultimately bloody demise and the West will be the first society in recorded history to fully self-implode due to its parasitic ideological rapture. It is a gargantuan Greek tragedy that will shape the future of humanity. This is not hyperbole. Your grandchildren will pay a very high price for your "progressive" arrogance rooted in the pursuit of Unicornia that only exists in the recesses of deeply flawed parasitized minds.

The Barbarians are on the warpath again - tribal mobs - hysterical women, tribal women and blacks, muslims, religious extremists, green activists, binary extremists, criminal gangs, University mobs, Chinese, Hordes - weak minded tribal types. Smug entitled victim status and outrage - constant aggression and demands - taking hostages - rampaging in the streets, destroying things, blockading universities, issuing threats, demands, ultimatums, bullying and harassing, intimidating, etc.

You cannot talk to Mobs - You can only incite them or take the knee to them and wash their feet because "Black Lives Matter". Soccer Mobs fight in the streets when they meet - they feel good - they fill themselves full of bravado then get more aggressive - their tribal feelings are strong - thinking about the consequences and reality of smashing people and destroying things is secondary to their feelings and emotions. Barbarian hordes think of Blood Lust.

You can talk with individuals but people in Mobs don't want to be individuals - they want to be incited mobs - the angrier, the more full of emotion, hysterical (like little children and women) and roused they are, the more smugly self righteously violent - How GOOD IT FEELS. You have all seen smug self righteous women hurling violence and abuse haven't you - they love how it makes them feel. They take their children with them and parade them in the streets as "Victims" for the cause.

They fill their children with hate and hysteria and ruin their childhood for the female hysteria and binary tribal causes. Mobs love being mobs - many people spend their entire lives in a MOB mindset - passively aggressively attacking the perpetrators and practicing their daily corruption, lies and deceptions at work and everywhere. Tribal Women gangs (schoolgirls - mean girls), Black Hoodlums, Religious Zealots, Binary extremists, causers and weak-minded men - Tribal binary types narcissists, tyrants and other psychopaths. Greens/Labour types are like that - ABC, Guardian - mainly hysterical outraged women and identity types but many religious fanatics - especially muslims who have a PROUD history of mob violence and nihilistic world domination cultism. Many heroic men fall for the victim narrative and become heroes for the cause - so willing to be cannon fodder for their masters. Of course muslims now hypnotize, drug and threaten people to be suicide bombers but there still many willing participants full of smiling faces and feeling very good about themselves because they are going to certain heaven in their mind - death is everything to them - death dominates their life.

Tribal women adopt the entitled victim narrative and form into outraged mobs. They do this constantly at work - in their jobs and in their social groups - gossip about victimhood and outrage. Women use their positions in jobs to push their causes and promote women - that's why we have an office of women and keeping women and children safe legislation and "respect" campaigns for women. Where ever women get into politics, media, schools, universities, law, courts - this is what happens - they make everything tribal and they constantly adopt the victim stance - protecting women and demonizing men. No women ever calls this out - they stick together as tribes and destroy as much as society as they can get their hands on. They encourage blacks to be tribal and they love tribal muslim causes - but incoherently not Jewish causes which are also tribal.

Penny Wong loves muslims and muslim causes - many of her friends back in Malaysia are muslims - Ed Husic is Muslim. Penny stands in solidarity with muslims and women - and as result she then ignores or - demonizes and attacks anyone not in her in-group. He uses her position in government for her selected in- groups - women and muslims and blacks - because they see themselves as victims using the drama triangle. All Binaries are incoherent this way - level 2 thinkers or level 1 (narcissists and babies) - these undeveloped humans dominate the world - probably more than 70% are like this.

Muslims, weak minded man, greeny causers and other binary extremists are very ignorant of the world and its history. They struggle with understanding basic mathematical concepts, they have no real knowledge of science and they double down on their ignorance and fill their "Virtue" by using the drama triangle - either as the victim or hero but never the perpetrator - the perpetrator is always someone else - the "Other". Zealotry and Smug Self Centered righteous abuse and violence dominate these people. These binary Tribalists dominate the world - United Nations, Davos elites, Big Business, multi nationals, Banks - anywhere where tribal thinking dominates - China, North Korea, Africa, USA, Muslim countries and most of the west now lead by women, blacks and weak minded men - barbarians on a deluded heroic causes or simple single minded narcissists who did not make it to binary level thinking. Women and Blacks in the west in particular have been brought up to suffer no consequences for their behaviour and to always play the victim for heroic men to virtue signal over - hence we get entrenched lying and corruption at all levels - legalized in Discrimination legislation and in the courts.

The Thirty Years War-Siege Capture Sack Rape Burning and Massacre of Magdeburg - War[1631] https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Sack_of_Magdeburg was one of the worst atrocities in the Thirty years war , Magdeburg was a prosperous Protestant city. When the Catholic troops captured, raped, looted, massacred and destroyed the city it became widely known as one of the greatest massacres of the time. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Otto_von_Guericke Documented the story - This exceptionally long, tragic and destructive conflict would soon also descend upon Magdeburg. Only a few years later, he had luckily fled from the city before an army of the imperial Catholic League, led by the Count of Tilly had completely surrounded and cut off Magdeburg. The attack culminated in the single most devastating event of the entire war, namely the Sack of Magdeburg. In May 1631, the imperial troops had crushed the city walls and indiscriminately plundered the riches. Around eighty percent of its more than 25,000 inhabitants perished. The material loss was also unusually high as widespread fires destroyed about 1,700 of a total of 1,900 buildings, including all of von Guericke's personal property. He returned to Magdeburg in 1631 and his academic engineer education designated him an appointee of the reconstruction committee

But 1631 was like now in 2024 around the world - we have people denying the recent atrocities in Israel by the muslims - rapes, murders, and world scale atrocities are celebrated by muslims around the world - including in the streets of Australian Cities, outside of politicians offices with muslims and their supporters burning flags and chanting muslim religious slogans and people like Penny Wong, Ed Husic and Greens/Labour express sympathy and support (including Australian Taxpayer Funds)for the muslim aggressors. ANU students say things like "I cannot condemn the actions of Hamas in committing the atrocities". Others - mainly young ignorant women and other dim-wit activists - deny that any atrocities took place - universities, media, public institutions and muslims everywhere celebrate muslim atrocities. Heads of government in many muslim dominated countries all support these atrocities. These ideas are widespread around the world including the senior parts of the united nations, media and the highest level of political elites.

They see themselves as "heroes" and delivering "Divine Punishment" to the perpetrator - in this case "Israel" but in general it is to White Men and the "West" in general. Penny Wong, Greens/Labour and other western world leaders have signaled to China, Iran, Russia and muslim countries general - a willingness to hate the West, to Hate White Men, to be fully tribal and to sympathize with Muslims as "Victims" of the 'West" and show no willingness to support their own countries or the ideas of the West. In fact Greens/Labour - lead by Women, Blacks and weak minded men (Corrupt, Liars, criminals, Narcissists, bullies, psychopaths) - are doing everything they can to destroy the country from within and constantly expressing their hatred of the country - White men, the West, the systems of the west - in preference for tribal victim narratives and the drama triangle that binaries cannot seem to escape.

So let us examine some of the reaction to Magdeburg 1631 by the Catholics who knew of the Atrocities. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Sack_of_Magdeburg

*I believe that over twenty thousand souls were lost. It is certain that no more terrible work and divine punishment has been seen since the destruction of Jerusalem.[a] All of our soldiers became rich. God with us.

— Graf Pappenheim, in a letter[17]: 23–48

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Gottfried_Heinrich_Graf_zu_Pappenheim Gottfried Heinrich Graf zu Pappenheim (Q61869)

Duke Maximilian of Bavaria, president of the Catholic League, concluded a congratulatory letter to Tilly on 1 June with the wish that "the enemies, powers and forces opposing Catholicism, the only religion offering salvation, would finally be ruined." [b][18]: 49

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Maximilian_I,_Elector_of_Bavaria Maximilian I, Elector of Bavaria (Q57206)

Pope Urban VIII wrote a congratulatory letter to Tilly on 18 June, saying: "You have washed your victorious hands in the blood of sinners." [c][19]: 48 https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Pope_Urban_VIII Urban VIII (Q131579) "Despite an early friendship and encouragement for his teachings, Urban VIII was responsible for summoning the scientist and astronomer Galileo to Rome in 1633 to recant his work. Urban VIII was opposed to Copernican heliocentrism and he ordered Galileo's second trial after the publication of Dialogue Concerning the Two Chief World Systems, in which Urban's point of view is argued by the character "Simplicio".

Urban VIII practiced nepotism on a grand scale; various members of his family were enormously enriched by him, so that it seemed to contemporaries as if he were establishing a Barberini dynasty. [6] He elevated his brother Antonio Marcello Barberini (Antonio the Elder) and then his nephews Francesco Barberini and Antonio Barberini (Antonio the Younger) to Cardinal. He also bestowed upon their brother, Taddeo Barberini, the titles Prince of Palestrina, Gonfalonier of the Church, Prefect of Rome and Commander of Sant'Angelo. Historian Leopold von Ranke estimated that during his reign, Urban VIII's immediate family amassed 105 million scudi in personal wealth

One of the ideas of the West - was to keep religions under control - not letting them get out of hand or dominate. Zealots tend to fill themselves with smug self-righteous violent glee. This idea of control is expressed in constitutions as "freedom of religion" or "Tolerance" or "freedom of ideas" but in reality it is more of a Definite Not thing - i.e. do not let the religions take over the place.

This could also be balanced with the idea of the west - do not let tribalism dominate.

<https://www.nla.gov.au/stories/blog/early-constitutions-new-wave-governance> Anna Dziedzic's current research explores the moment of constitution-making, when the people of a nation decide to change their constitution or make a new one.. 'I first became interested in this topic, and exploring constitution making in the Pacific region, when I realised how long the history of constitution making in the region was,' said Anna.

'Some of the earliest written constitutions in the world were made by Indigenous leaders in the Pacific during the 19th century.'

Most women (Hysterical, Narcissists, tribal) and blacks are completely tribal and determinedly pig-ignorant like Muslims, Religious fanatics, Binary extremists, causists and weak minded "heroic" men. Uneducated constantly tribal and completely driven by virtue signaling tribal identity and identity politics.

Everything is heresy and blasphemy to the ignorant. It upsets their beliefs.

The current head of the United Nations has declared that the “World is in an era of Global Boiling” and we should all take the knee to his hysterics and delusions.

<https://unsdg.un.org/latest/blog/world-burning-we-need-renewables-revolution> Soothsayers, Prophets and other experts in the certain future have always been grifting as much as they can from the gullible. António Guterres, Secretary-General is no intellectual yet he represents the level of stupidity that the bulk of humanity has at the moment. The United Nations is dominated by proudly ignorant tribal people. In previous times people were told to sacrifice babies and bury them under their houses so their houses would survive the next earthquake. The more you gave to temples - the “safer” you would be. The more you gave to “Priests” the more “blessed” and lucky you were. Who needs to do real work when all you have to do is kill people? Incas, Aztecs, etc. The lazy violence and brutality of the pig-ignorant and instant death to any heretic who upsets that gravy train.

Fourth Bolgia (Sorcerers) (Dante’s Hell)

It took hundreds of years and much effort to create western civilization - Muslims dominated large parts of the world with tribalism, torture, rape, looting and systemic slavery and brutalization of others. Yemen, Ethiopia and many places were still operating slavery until a few decades ago and many countries now all over Africa, the Middle East and Asia still operate brutal regimes, censorship of all questions and debate (like Australia is doing now), subjugation of women, stealing women and girls and recruiting boys as slave - killing men who try to protect them. The push back against Muslims gained momentum in the 1600s as Cossacks, Italians and others were sick and tired of the slave trade and the brutal Ottoman disregard of human life.

Most women reporters at the ABC and anyone brought up in Australia’s education system of the last 50 years have been brainwashed by women and black tribalism and have no understanding of the current world or even recent history - let alone a deep understanding of human history at a broader scale. Women in Courts, schools, politics, universities and media are tribal, ignorant and corrupt. Constant daily brain washing keeps them in this deluded corrupt mind state.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The_Red_Pill

Marcia Langton (Black Activist, University Professor and ignorant tribal extremist) says that Australians should be ashamed of their colonial past. All Australians should take the knee to Black Victimhood and give more money to her and blacks. Many governments are giving taxpayer funds and land to blacks based on this constantly alleged victimhood. Black victimhood is big business. This is of course coming from someone - Marcia - who is proud of everything of the black history - constant warfare, cannibalism, child rape, child sex, stealing people, poisoning the bone, leaving people in the desert to die, ritual body mutilation, genital mutilation of young boys, giving girls to old men as sex gifts, lack of agriculture, widespread starvation, lack of education and writing and lately - constant drug dependence, rampant alcoholism, tribal warfare, stealing, trashing buildings, lack of appreciation of things, etc. What these Blacks, Women, Muslims and other binary extremists are doing is using the entitled victim narrative - desperate to maintain that their tribe is the victim of everything and therefore entitled to make everyone else take the knee, give them money for the rest of their lives. They use Shame and Blame to try to make you feel guilty so you donate money to them - many women do this as Emotional Blackmail. Like many tribes they never get over anything - they remain in a permanent state of resentment - and passive aggressive violence using the drama triangle - no matter how much money, gifts, support, apologies (Socrates and Zenophon the apology) - these people add nothing to society - not even debate or discussion - like a constant whinging baby crying for constant attention they never make it to being an adult human being. That's why women and weak minded men respond to the crying baby - it is always demanding full time attention from their base level responses in the amygdala and the baby never does anything until it reaches maturity. Entitled Victims are always "Special" - John Locke

<https://constitutioncenter.org/education/classroom-resource-library/classroom/john-locke-profile>

"The state of nature is governed by natural law; everyone is born free and equal and, generally speaking, may not harm others. The state of nature has a law of nature to govern it, which obliges every one: and reason, which is that law, teaches all mankind, who will but consult it, that being all equal and independent, no one ought to harm another in his life, health, liberty, or possessions"

Anthony Albanese, Mark Dreyfuss, Jason Claire, Matt Keen, Richard Marles (With respect - now is not the time to talk about how corrupt we are) Greens/Labour remain in a constant tyrannical narcissistic deluded zombie mind state of virtue wankersim in support of the whinging women and blacks - they ejaculate their virtue proudly all over everyone using the ABC and others to support their precious virtue wankersim - the ring that unties them all.

But these people never reach adulthood. Like Peter Pan in the Drama Triangle of heroes, victims and perpetrators - in a fantasy, delusion and deadly nihilist drama triangle - never facing the reality and enjoyment to be found in the real world. Thus Spake.

Introduction

The 1600s is less than 500 years ago and many historians have explored and documented it. I see some evidence of a window of about 500 to 1000 years where people can look back in their own time and carrying some history and meaning forwards as an idea of "recent times" rather than ancient history. Since the advances in archeology and science from the 1600s onwards - we can look much further back in time than any human has done at any time in history. Having some real frame of history can help people. But binaries always adopt a permanent entitled victim narrative - even for events going back thousands of years.

Binaries don't learn from history - they weaponise it for constant war.

HG Wells tried to explore all of History https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The_Outline_of_History The outline of History <https://www.gutenberg.org/files/45368/45368-h/45368-h.htm> , https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Charles_Francis_Horne Charles Francis Horne (January 12, 1870 – September 13, 1942) was an American author. He wrote or edited more than one hundred books, mostly multi-volume history works. He was a Professor of English at City College of New York.

It is to be noted that all media now - especially the ABC and the Conversation are staffed by Blacks, Women and other tribal types - heroic men - who see everything as tribal and if women and blacks are not talked about all the time then they are personally outraged. It is like Muslim or Chinese who expect all their written works to be at the centre of all debate and thought. The entitled victim narrative. <https://theconversation.com/encyclopedia-britannica-once-published-a-catalogue-of-humanitys-102-great-ideas-and-it-created-more-questions-than-answers-220606> "From the outset, people homed in on problems with the selection process. The (non-bylined) Life article highlighted that all 71 authors of the 432 books were men, ranging from Homer to Freud. It also noted that while "man" was the subject of a section all its own, "woman" was not featured as a main idea, but instead a subdivision of the Family, Man and Love sections." .." Researchers also pointed out that none of the books were by authors of colour. Entire areas of scholarship were disregarded, for being, as one commentator put it, contrary to Adler's narrow preconceptions. Meanwhile, New Yorker journalist Dwight McDonald noted a "provincial overemphasis" on English literature at the expense of other literary traditions, and concluded that what might otherwise have been called "accidental eccentricities" of the selection were in fact systematic omissions. To his mind, they sprang from "dogma rather than oversight." Author Marshall McLuhan reached a similar conclusion. In his 1951 book, The Mechanical Bride, he wrote that the "great ideas" had been "extracted from the great books in order to provide an index tool for manipulating the books themselves".

In excluding women from both being taken seriously as scholars and being seen as a topic worthy of consideration, the index reinforced and replicated, in printed form, the biases and power structures that had oppressed women for so many years.

For your information - I have looked at thousands of people and books over thousands of years of history - there are very few people or books from Blacks, Women or Muslims tribal types which are worth reading. A very small percent - far fewer than what feminists and blacks now suggest are "important" works and heroes suggest as part a virtue signal to the Drama Triangle. Muslims could have written more but why write when killing, blood sports and harems keep you amused? A Muslim Poet - "I 'wandered lonely as' a Muslim cunt - none of my 500 concubines liked me - no matter how much I abused them". Aborigines have never written anything so it absurd to say they are "underrepresented" in writing. Same with most tribes all over the world. Chinese wrote - Persians kept records, Greeks thought and wrote - People of the Levant Wrote - Europeans wrote at great expense on parchments and the on printed books. Native American Indians were not writing and printing books. Books - writing and thinking like we see now in advanced western cultures is an "Idea of the West" and not one held in high esteem and practiced in many other countries - even now. Right now the hysterical women and binary types in parliament are seeking to repress speech and create a ministry of Truth to fine people for daring to question their binary extremism and pig-ignorance. This suits Greens/Labour, ABC and others who are really stupid and pig-ignorant binaries - but does not to help explore complex or difficult debates. The government of Australia wants to burn books. My suggestion to these psychopaths is to do it properly in old style medieval ways. Get a designated public Hangman to burn the books - have large public crowds holding firebrands and religious leaders speaking on blasphemy - not only all the muslims but the Greens, Davos elites, Catholics, Protestants and all the other leaders to speak against people and condemn the heretics to death. We could have this event once a year and call it "Australia Day". The ABC, SBS could broadcast it world wide and it would be eagerly anticipated every year by those with a grudge. Witches could also be included just to spice up the event from merely a book burning - maybe with some exorcism and tortured confessions before each burning.

<https://quoteinvestigator.com/2015/06/01/defend-say/> When in 1759, On the Mind was burnt by the public hangman in company with Voltaire's poem On Natural Law, though he had soundly hated (and roundly abused) Helvétius' masterpiece, he fought for its right to live, tooth and nail, up hill and down dale, on the essentially Voltairean principle: "I wholly disapprove of what you say—and will defend to the death your right to say it "

We have a great wealth of knowledge, ideas, stories of the great human adventure all waiting to be explored and understood.

What sense can I make of the 1600s?

The 1600s onwards represent a major development change in humanity - the ideas of the West are argued and developed during this time.

Wars - 1600s

There are too many battles for me to comprehend. I cannot get my head around all the battles. It is beyond my time and abilities to integrate all the information.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_battles_1601%E2%80%931800

I notice

- English Civil Wars - the emergence of a “united kingdom” - tribal binary religious certainty in Ireland - Catholics aligned with Spain
- Wars and battles in the colonies - Americas, East Indies, West Indies, Africa (Angola) - tribal rebellion wars and Nation dominance wars
- World Wide Naval Battles of National Dominance, Trade and Pirating - especially Dutch and English
- Continuing Ottoman Slave trade in Ukraine and other parts of Europe - European Slave trade in Africa
- The rise of the Cossacks/Tartars, Sweden, Denmark and Russia - the re-emergence of Portugal as a country https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Portuguese_Restoration_War
- The decline of Germany and Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth through constant wars and famine
- Unification of France and French wars of aggression against the Dutch and continuing religious wars in France
- Massacres and genocide in Safavid Georgia as a continuation of Ottoman-Persian wars https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ottoman%E2%80%93Persian_Wars https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Abbas_I%27s_Kakhetian_and_Kartlian_campaigns
- Pushback against the Ottoman Empire from Europe (Including Cossacks) and Safavid Iran https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Treaty_of_Nasuh_Pasha signed on 20 November 1612 - This treaty is the first treaty in Ottoman history by which the empire agreed to lose territory
- The shaping of Nations and States into more settled areas in Europe which resemble current positions
- Continuing tribal lifestyles in middle Asia and most of Sub-Saharan Africa - Regime Changes in Ethiopia (difficult to locate places and verify the history)
- Egypt controlled by Ottoman empire <https://www.metmuseum.org/toah/ht/09/afe.html>
- Northern Africa Wars between tribal groups and various Muslim/Berber groups from Morocco to Tunis https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Hadj_Ahmed_Chabane
- Wars of rebellion and inheritance in India - the rise of Sikhs - Rebellions in Sri Lanka
- Continuing Japanese Tribal Wars - European trade with Japan, China and Spice islands
- Qing Dynasty in China and Manchuria Wars
- Massacres and Revenge

Massacres are remembered throughout history but the atrocities from 1500s to now live in the memories of most countries and cause strong feelings of resentment, suspicion and anger - not only the religious tribes (Muslims, Catholics, etc) but all massacres and atrocities.

The Definite Nots For Liberals

See The Definite Not <https://humanistman.com/wp-content/uploads/2024/10/The-Definite-Not.pdf> and What Were you Thinking – 1600s – part7 <https://humanistman.com/wp-content/uploads/2024/10/What-Were-you-Thinking-1600s-part7.pdf>

A Liberal Decalogue - Document[1951] Rank(20) Author(Bertrand Russell) Age(79) Keyword(Group Development Philosophy) <https://www.brainpickings.org/2012/05/02/a-liberal-decalogue-bertrand-russell/> <https://www.panarchy.org/russell/decalogue.1951.html> <http://userpages.bright.net/~dclose/10command-phildef.pdf>

Bertrand Russell in his final adult years expresses several things as Definite Nots - See The Definite Not <https://humanistman.com/wp-content/uploads/2024/10/The-Definite-Not.pdf> where I assert that most things are carried around in pairs of definitions - the Definite is and the Definite Not - the most obvious balanced pair is Man and Women - where they are both Definite IS and Definite Nots of each other (Sexual Reproduction). i.e. No matter how many times a Man Fucks a Man they will never have babies despite Andrew Barr being proud of legislating Gay Marriage. No matter how many times a woman fucks a women they will not have babies.

The Definite Not is also conceptually related to the Scientific method and Karls Popper's Falsifiability <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Falsifiability> but a similar general testing method was also proposed in detail in Florence Italy in 1657 in Accademia del Cimento https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Accademia_del_Cimento The Accademia del Cimento (Academy of Experiment), an early scientific society, was founded in Florence in 1657 by students of Galileo, Giovanni Alfonso Borelli and Vincenzo Viviani and ceased to exist about a decade later. The foundation of Academy was funded by Prince Leopoldo and Grand Duke Ferdinando II de' Medici. The tenets of the society included:[1]

- Experimentation (about everything, in this early period of science)

- Avoidance of speculation
- Creation of laboratory instruments
- Standards of measurement
- Motto – Provando e riprovando = Proving and proving again (or Trying and Trying again)

A publication 'Saggi di naturali esperienze fatte nell'Accademia del Cimento sotto la protezione del Serenissimo Principe Leopoldo di Toscana e descritte dal segretario di essa Accademia first published in 1666, later translated into Latin in 1731. It became the standard laboratory manual in the 18th century.

See Binary Groupthink <https://humanistman.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/06/Binary-Groupthink.pdf>

So lets us examine these 10 things and see what pairs arise. I suspect Bertrand Russell adopted 10 ideas because of the 10 commandments of the bible. I also suspect he followed the idea of thou shalt not ... without any understanding of the broader framework as I have described e.g. why some things are better described as a definite not instead of a definite should.

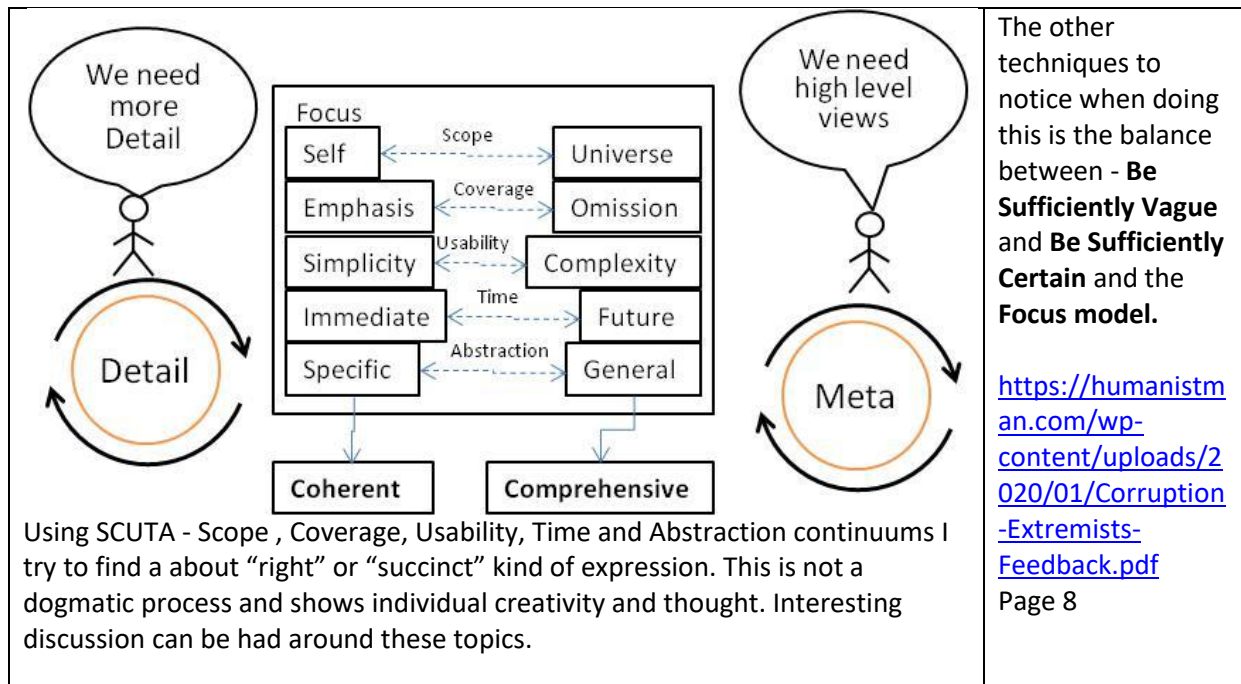

<https://blog.enotes.com/2012/05/02/the-liberal-decalogue-a-lesson-in-teaching/> Perhaps the essence of the Liberal outlook could be summed up in a new decalogue, not intended to replace the old one but only to supplement it. The Ten Commandments that, as a teacher, I should wish to promulgate, might be set forth as follows:

1. Do not feel absolutely certain of anything.
2. Do not think it worth while to proceed by concealing evidence, for the evidence is sure to come to light.
3. Never try to discourage thinking for you are sure to succeed.
4. When you meet with opposition, even if it should be from your husband or your children, endeavor to overcome it by argument and not by authority, for a victory dependent upon authority is unreal and illusory.
5. Have no respect for the authority of others, for there are always contrary authorities to be found.
6. Do not use power to suppress opinions you think pernicious, for if you do the opinions will suppress you.
7. Do not fear to be eccentric in opinion, for every opinion now accepted was once eccentric.
8. Find more pleasure in intelligent dissent than in passive agreement, for, if you value intelligence as you should, the former implies a deeper agreement than the latter.
9. Be scrupulously truthful, even if the truth is inconvenient, for it is more inconvenient when you try to conceal it.
10. Do not feel envious of the happiness of those who live in a fool's paradise, for only a fool will think that it is happiness.

These can be paired with their balancing opposites - note how general my balancing opposites are and not draconian or overly detailed. They are less specific than their paired assertion. This is a general technique of "Searching for meaning" or "finding the principle at stake" - where you take a specific detail and then search levels of abstraction to connect it to a general idea. Otherwise you end up with facile and meaningless opposites.

e.g. Do not feel absolutely certain of anything/ feel absolutely certain of anything

This search for meaning in the opposite - is the general method grouping and building hierarchical links - see my Meta Frames <https://humanistman.com/home/frames/meta-frames/> and 8. Language and Symbols <https://humanistman.com/wp-content/uploads/2019/02/06-Humanism-Meta-Frames-Language.pdf>

This general technique (which is similar to my plurality model but only a binary view of it) is also explored by Arthur Schopenhauer - The Fourfold Root Of The Principle Of Sufficient Reason (Rank:10) :Author(Arthur Schopenhauer) :Year[1813] Age(25) :Keyword(Individual Philosophy Choice) <http://www.gutenberg.org/files/50966/50966-h/50966-h.htm> <https://plato.stanford.edu/entries/schopenhauer/> https://en.wikisource.org/wiki/On_the_Fourfold_Root_of_the_Principle_of_Sufficient_Reason THE divine Plato and the marvellous Kant unite their mighty voices in recommending a rule, to serve as the method of all philosophising as well as of all other science.[7] Two laws, they tell us: the law of homogeneity and the law of specification, should be equally observed, neither to the disadvantage of the other. The law of homogeneity directs us to collect things together into kind, by observing their resemblances and correspondences, to collect kinds again into species, species into genera, and so on, till at last we come to the highest all-comprehensive conception.

<https://plato.stanford.edu/entries/identity-indiscernible/> The Identity of Indiscernibles is a principle of analytic ontology first explicitly formulated by Wilhelm Gottfried Leibniz in his Discourse on Metaphysics, Section 9 (Loemker 1969: 308). It states that no two distinct things exactly resemble each other. This is often referred to as 'Leibniz's Law' and is typically understood to mean that no two objects have exactly the same properties.

Kant on Logic <https://iep.utm.edu/k-logic/> Concepts - Comparison, Reflection and Abstraction

So here is my attempt and finding suitable opposites concepts (homogeneity and specification) of Betrand Russell's - A Liberal Decalogue using Comparison, Reflection and Abstraction.

1. Feel Uncertain - have doubt (Rene Descartes)
2. Examine all Evidence - be comprehensive
3. Think Openly and encourage others to think
4. Debate and Discuss - argue your position - seek cohesive positions - Think Openly - See An Architecture of Ideas <https://humanistman.com/wp-content/uploads/2022/10/An-Architecture-of-Ideas.pdf>
5. Think for yourself regardless of the Authority of Other People's thinking
6. Encourage other opinions in debates
7. Encourage other opinions in debates no matter how eccentric
8. Allow disagreement in debates or even Encourage disagreement in debates to make sure you have examined all the Evidence and have not missed anything important (See all of my articles - "What Am I Missing")
9. Don't hide the Truth - Examine all evidence - be comprehensive
10. Be a thinking person - which may not make you feel happy - Feel Uncertain - have doubt (Rene Descartes)

The emphasis he provides on these paired ideas is wisdom and morality - here are the mistakes I have made and observed throughout history - don't do this. The paired concepts have less meaning in the positive and more in the negative - the definite Not - but they still can be paired to provide a context. Feeling "Happy" and "Certain" is a problem to be avoided. But we see this in Muslims, Blacks, Hysterical Women, Tribal extremists, Causists and other types - not only are they fully binary but thinking, debate, truth and all of those other ideas are avoided in preference for feeling "Happy" and "Certain" - and constant deluded certain happy state. Blissful Ignorance is their aim and violent agenda. Stupid people love how they feel being stupid - it means they do not have to work to solve problems - Fat, Dumb and Lazy.

I generally agree with Betrand's Model but I would add

1. Don't be Corrupt - It is not virtuous to be corrupt
2. Avoid tribalism
3. Try not to be habitually Binary in your thinking

Neither Good Nor Bad - Something in the middle then?

I have written much (along with many others <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Taoism> https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Yin_and_yang) to counteract extreme binary thinking but I was hoping that people would understand the continuum. Very few people do and they stay stuck in rush to judgement along binary lines. I have now produced the 16 category model based on Pearson's Method - which explicitly explores the DEFINITE NOT and uses Fisher's 4 Box model.

I have described the plurality model generally and in many ways - because it is only a model - a thinking tool - an idea which may help people think and explore.

See The Definite Not <https://humanistman.com/wp-content/uploads/2024/10/The-Definite-Not.pdf>

G	Definitely Not G
Definitely Not G	nG
G	nG
nnG	nnG

B	Definitely Not B
Definitely Not B	nB
B	nB
nnB	nnB

The idea is to assert and define some thing and then assert its definite Not at the same time. So for comparing Good and Bad you have to do four different assertions. If You assert Good you then use that frame to assert the definite Not Good. This a different thinking exercise.

Then you assert Bad as separate idea - which brings along different thoughts and detail.

You can see that there are 16 combinations - for example - combination number 8 shows a definition of Good G (not contradictory) with the other infinities of possibilities - the infinite of Not Definitely Good, The infinite of Not Bad and the Infinite of Not Definitely Bad. This could be described as ignorance - in a very specific definable way. Ignorance of infinities of other things - a single minded certainty.

The combination 6 shows both Good and Bad defined but also the 2 infinite nots - the infinite not of the Definitely Not Good and the infinite not of the Definitely Not Bad. This could be described as the position of being very certain of your definition of what is Good and what is Bad. This is only one of the 16 possibilities and it carries 2 infinities with it which could still be explored.

Hamlet by William Shakespeare <https://shakespeare.mit.edu/hamlet/full.html> There are more things in heaven and earth, Horatio, Than are dreamt of in your philosophy.

*Why, then, 'tis none to you; for there is nothing either good or bad, but thinking makes it so: to me it is a prison.

Binaries tend to be very simple and habitually adhere to certain binary positions and double down on their thinking due to Sunk Cost bias and Confirmation bias.

So I have made the infinities very explicit and I have made the combinations very explicit. The infinities contain what is not in the 4 definitely defined terms - i.e. the 4 terms which are not definitely defined are the infinities - 4 distinctly different infinities - those things that are either UNKNOWN or are KNOWN but have been deliberately discarded from the definition. As you explore the model you will come across other ideas. For example in Jurisprudence one could argue that combination 1 represents someone who has a confused and contradictory definition of Good and Definitely Not Good and Bad and Definitely not Bad - they are completely confused about the 4 concepts - it is incoherent. Combination 14 shows someone who has a clear definition of what is bad and unknown or discarded definitions of the other 3 concepts.

For example - heroes - the very young or stupid - adhere to only one concept and completely ignore investigating other combinations or infinities. Combination 8. They proudly claim one definition of certainty and ignore everything else. They are deliberately ignorant of the world and all of its possibilities. Religious fanatics and other binary extremist types (Women, Blacks - on average) have very little understanding of the world and tend to remain binary and smugly certain in a permanent state of pig-ignorance.

Most binaries use combination 1 or any combinations where A or B are confused. We see this as the Binary Switch Routine “They are both as Bad as Each Other” “At least I am not as Bad as Hitler” - I am a group/I am an Individual - depending on whether the problem is being praised or being blamed. For example most women and blacks believe that they have been promoted to public service jobs on “Merit” despite obvious and legislated processes which prove the opposite - they were promoted on Identity and group characteristics. This is mandated and legislated in the Discrimination Act of Australia - how to discriminate in favour of women and Blacks and against men. Katy Gallagher (feminist, man hater, corrupt, liar, misleader of parliaments “No-one knew anything” “How Dare You”) has legislated ‘Name and Shame processes to bully people into promoting women and blacks regardless of merit - yet each women or blacks loves being promoted for their identity. For example Barack Obama - black American - was given an award for being black and the current black women vice president - selected because she was a black women - claims she was selected on “Merit” and capabilities. Nearly 50% believe on tribalism and not merit - they believe this incoherence. This is called Nepotism and corruption. 60% of the public service is women due to legislated and endorsed discrimination against men and towards women - people feel “virtuous” and “Good” doing things like this.

So they say This “A” is the Same thing - This “A” is not the same thing - when talking about exactly one thing “A” - or they negate all differences and nuances until they reach a level of abstraction which they feel is “Right” .

For Penny Wong/Greens/Labour types and the ABC they say they murdering, raping, beheading, torturing and brutal demonizing of people by Muslims is the same as Israel dropping bombs on the very people who committed those atrocities and constantly declare that they still want to commit more atrocities. See The Definite Not <https://humanistman.com/wp-content/uploads/2024/10/The-Definite-Not.pdf>

This is sometimes called “Moral Equivalence” or “Denial”

ANU (Canberra) students say things like “I am not prepared to comment on atrocities committed by Hamas but I will comment on atrocities committed by Israel.” - All Greens/Labour types do this - none of them have much intelligence - they are binary or below - and they substitute thinking and debate with tribalism and virtue signaling. For example -the education system in schools and universities in Australia is completely corrupted by tribalism and ignorance to the extent that university graduates cannot read or write English or think beyond binary tribalism yet Jason Claire - Minister for education - when pressed about looking at the quality of teachers work - said “I am not prepared to look at teachers - I think they do a marvelous job” - he is incoherent and playing hero to the “Victims” - the teachers - Instead of “Victims” - students and society - He is passively aggressively attacking those people who reasonably wanting to look at all the issues which might be involved in improving and maintaining a decent education system. Jason is binary extremist virtue signaler - all Greens/Labour people are tribal dimwits engaged in aggressive hate filled tribal campaigns and self stimulation - virtue wankerism. Most Binary type triangle types play this game - for Example Andrew Leigh when questioned by me about corruption in courts and feminism said words to the effect “You may not like Women and Blacks - But we love them” - in other words an attempt to dismiss my concerns and demonstrate (at least in his own weak narcissistic mind) that he is Morally Superior and that I am a Tribal woman hater - this is the standard passive aggressive approach of the Greens/Labour Tribalists playing the drama triangle of Victim/Hero and Perpetrator - where they cast you as the perpetrator to their “Cause” - Themselves - their virtue. Penny Wong/Katy Gallagher “HOW DARE YOU - NO-ONE KNEW ANYTHING!” Solidarity with Palestine.

For example, the black tribal types in USA say “Everyone who oppose me is a Fascist and Hitler - these deplorable people (Hillary Clinton) - and all blacks should vote for me because I am black. (and a self righteous entitled victim)

Wars gradually became more conducted in humane ways - prisoners were kept safe and ransomed or traded - the rules of war developed over time. The Ottomans sometimes behaved by the rules of war but most of the time muslims were as barbaric as Genhis Khans, The Huns, The Hordes - the tribal barbarian types. We see this barbarism in Africa now - raping and stealing children and many other places - Muslims and other low level tribal types seem to delight in human atrocities - it fills them with glee - they laugh, sing and tell everyone about their brutality as a sign of joy.

Some wars in 1500s and 1600s were brutal and there were many massacres - but when there was a massacre then there was often a REVENGE massacre as a kind Tit-for-tat never ending war game until finally someone stopped the tit-for-tat. Israel is not engaged in a revenge war - despite Hamas joyfully and continually delighting in its massacres, mistreatment, atrocities and brutalization of Israelis - including American Jews who are kept as prisoners. These muslims are the scum of the earth - barbarians of historic proportion and to think otherwise - is denialism - Barbarian Denial.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Sack_of_Magdeburg Thirty Years War-Siege Capture Sack Rape Burning and Massacre of Magdeburg - War[1631] Largest massacre of Thirty Years' War in Germany. Mass killing of the inhabitants of Magdeburg (Protestant since 1524 and hence a center of Reformation) following its siege by Imperial Field Marshal Gottfried Heinrich Graf zu Pappenheim and Johann Tserclaes, Count of Tilly. On May 9, 1631, the city has had about 35,000 inhabitants, only 5,000 to 10,000 of them survived. In a letter of June 24, Pope Urban VIII expressed his delight about the "annihilation of this nest of heretics". Up until 1639, the almost totally destroyed city was reduced to a small village of 450 people.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Pope_Urban_VIII His papacy also covered 21 years of the Thirty Years' War. However, the massive debts incurred during his pontificate greatly weakened his successors, who were unable to maintain the papacy's longstanding political and military influence in Europe. He was also an opponent of Copernicanism and involved in the Galileo affair which saw the astronomer tried for heresy. .. Urban VIII practiced nepotism on a grand scale; various members of his family were enormously enriched by him, so that it seemed to contemporaries as if he were establishing a Barberini dynasty.[6] He elevated his brother Antonio Marcello Barberini (Antonio the Elder) and then his nephews Francesco Barberini and Antonio Barberini (Antonio the Younger) to Cardinal. He also bestowed upon their brother, Taddeo Barberini, the titles Prince of Palestrina, Gonfalonier of the Church, Prefect of Rome and Commander of Sant'Angelo. Historian Leopold von Ranke estimated that during his reign, Urban VIII's immediate family amassed 105 million scudi in personal wealth

The Thirty Years War, a multifaceted and multinational political and military conflict that raged over central Europe between 1618 and 1648 has often been considered, at least in the scope of misery and destruction it brought to those experiencing it, as a disaster comparable to, if not greater than, the two world wars and the Black Death. The suffering and heroism of both the combatants and the hapless victims of the fighting has burned itself into the national literatures and historical consciousness of that age and those ages that follow. While information on the extent of the material losses is sketchy, recent scholarship estimates human casualties to be in excess of millions, or about 15 to 20 percent of the prewar population of the region. Added to the sheer human dimension of the conflict are its social and political consequences—its beginning is usually associated with the start of perhaps the last religious war of the Reformation, and its end is often considered to be the first stepping stone in the development of the modern nation-state.

The Tendency to be Vague in Written Constitutions

We can see from the Definite Not idea - we get some ideal of morality and a little bit of possible law but as a dueled pair of ideas - the positive idea is often quite vague. This then can lead people to lose sight of the things that they should DEFINITELY NOT DO.

Solon avoided Draco's dogma by making laws less detailed and certain - Allowing debate, discussion and consideration of other issues which he could not foresee at the time of writing the new laws.

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Crito> The dialogue contains an ancient statement of the social contract theory of government. In contemporary discussions, the meaning of Crito is debated to determine whether it is a plea for unconditional obedience to the laws of a society. The text is one of the few Platonic dialogues that appear to be unaffected by Plato's opinions on the matter; it is dated to have been written around the same time as the Apology.

Allowing room to explore and consider is a feature of most high level laws and is based on the expectation that the level of education will continue and that educated and authentically decent people - not tyrants - will ensure that the laws remain in an uncorrupted state and can be sustained over long periods of time (with less revolution and revolt). In many ways this is what the "Laws" represent - the intent was to create some ideas which are sufficiently vague and sufficiently certain to provide a framework for sustainability of the human civilized society.

The Nation is the Group concept - yet the individual also needs to be able to be an individual. Constitutions help frame that idea. See Exploring the Rant – Measuring the Lie – Doubling Down on Delusion <https://humanistman.com/wp-content/uploads/2022/05/Exploring-the-Rant-Measuring-the-Lie-Doubling-Down-on-Delusion.pdf>

One main idea on constitutions is the “Head of Power” idea combined with the Separation of Powers - to avoid tyranny and corruption. While vague, it is an important national concept. This Asserted thing is agreed upon that the power to make laws resides in one certain place - with associated processes and involvements. The Definite Not of this is the idea that people can make up their own laws. Or Make laws for “special people” - the elites, the group victims, the religious, etc. NT and Western Australia and many other parts of Australia have made special laws for blacks and women.

An Aside: The head of power in Australia has been abstracted through several layers - People, Governments, Governor General and Monarch. It is part of the separation powers idea which is an idea of the West - where as in tyrannies and dictatorships - China, Russia, North Korea, Iran, Muslim countries and other countries like to centralize power in one place and rule in Authoritarian and Dictatorial ways.

Women are not held to account by the police and courts for making false allegations, lying (ABC, Guardian, etc) or deliberately harassing threatening or intimidating men - for example - the Canberra Magistrates court will not ever question a women who lies and they will attack and demean men who dare question this. Lorraine Walker, Bernadette Boss, Robert Cook and the rest of the people employed there all do this. Mark Dreyfuss, Andrew Barr and the rest of the feminist tribalists in politics and law all support this and seek to make the laws more corrupt - especially against men. As a result - women generally no longer respect the rule of law and corrupt every part of society they are involved with - knowing they will face no accountability or consequences for the actions because they are "Entitled Victims" - same with Blacks in Alice Springs and many other places and now with Muslims and "Refugees" (Economic illegal immigrants). This is widespread - and getting worse - in all courts in Australia including the High court and most of the legal profession is corrupt, tribal and self interested. See Women Lawyers – Corruption – Feminism – Debate <https://humanistman.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/07/Women-Lawyers-Corruption-Feminism-Debate.pdf> . In places like Darwin police commissioners apologize to blacks for arresting them when the Blacks commit a crime. <https://www.abc.net.au/news/2024-08-05/nt-police-commissioner-racism-apology-viewed-as-new-beginning/104181502> Courts now around Australia are being trained to treat Muslims, Blacks and women with special consideration under the law - as different and special people. White men are assumed guilty and have domestic violence orders made against them without even being aware of the allegations made. I was told of one of mine by a phone call from the police while on holiday in Hong Kong. These remain a permanent record which can never be removed. The system is designed that way - to permanently smear and damage men. The weak minded tribalists in Canberra Magistrate court attack and demean any man who calls it out or tries to defend himself. (Robert Cook, Lorraine Walker, Bernadette Boss and the rest) Women are usually always let off from crimes because the Judge would say there were "mental issues" i.e. the idea of a woman being malicious and deliberate was not possible. Women could not be held responsible for their actions - very much like children.

You only have to see how the women in the ABC, Greens/Labour and Political staffers behave on a daily basis to see what a lack of accountability and responsibility does.

We see this now as town councils, states, blacks, women and individuals all defy the rule of law and seek to have special laws for them. Corruption and tribalism is rampant. We see this in Black Activism and the Greens/Labour agenda (The Voice - constitutional changes - Office of women and Blacks, etc), Religious Laws, Sovereign citizen and special laws for women. So at every level the laws have become corrupt and controlled by tribal tyrannies - all seeking to dismantle the Head of Power idea. This is supported and funded by taxpayers and large corporations who pay lawyers and other activist groups to deliberately undermine the constitution and the rule of law to signal tribal virtue for causes for blacks, women, religious minorities, ISIS Sharia law and other tribal extremism around the world - lead by the United Nations and Davos elites - all wanting to destroy nations and the integrity of National constitutions.

We also see a problem as described by George Orwell where the so called 'Positive Message' of Truth and Human Rights becomes corrupted because the DEFINITE NOT is ignored . The Human rights legislation - discrimination Act - EXCLUDES MEN - so rather that rights for ALL it becomes rights for some special upright PIGS. (Animal Farm)

DEFINITELY NOT - MAKE LAWS FOR SOME PEOPLE AND NOT EVERYONE YOU STUPID BINARY VIRTUE SIGNALING CORRUPT BINARIES

DEFINITELY NOT - MAKE LAWS WHICH ALLOW SOME PEOPLE TO BE EXEMPT

DEFINITELY NOT - MAKE LAWS WHICH GIVE TOO MUCH POWER TO ONE TYRANT

Limit ministerial power for appointments, money, grants and exemptions.

Respect the individual - avoid groupthink and tribalism.

So if you examine these ideas with their pairs - the IS and the Definite NOT you might be able to find some VALUES and PRINCIPLES - things that are expressed VAGUELY in one side of the pairs but QUITE SPECIFICALLY on the other side of the pair - so to some extent you could have one vague group term like - Avoid Corruption and then many specific definite nots linked to it.

Layers of Abstraction in Binary Pairs

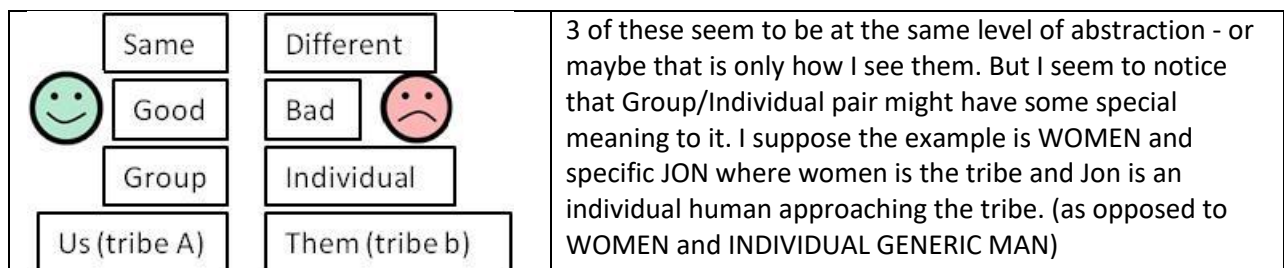

ON COMPROMISE BY JOHN MORLEY MACMILLAN AND CO., LIMITED ST. MARTIN'S STREET, LONDON 1908 This Edition first printed 1886 <http://www.gutenberg.org/files/11557/11557-h/11557-h.htm>

“Are we only to be permitted to defend general principles, on condition that we draw no practical inferences from them? Is every other idea to yield precedence and empire to existing circumstances, and is the immediate and universal workableness of a policy to be the main test of its intrinsic fitness?” (First noticed by me in <https://humanistman.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/01/Corruption-Measurement-and-Implementation.pdf>

“The consequences of such a transformation, of putting immediate social convenience in the first place, and respect for truth in the second, are seen, as we have said, in a distinct and unmistakable lowering of the level of national life; a slack and lethargic quality about public opinion; a growing predominance of material, temporary, and selfish aims, over those which are generous, far-reaching, and spiritual; a deadly weakening of intellectual conclusiveness, and clear-shining moral illumination, and, lastly, of a certain stoutness of self-respect for which England was once especially famous.”

If we are to examine binary pairs then we need to do some thinking a classification of things. We need to do some work.

What is a binary pair? It looks a little like link or graph theory or a network of things all connected. Lots of little binary pairs and then some nodes connected to other nodes.

Man/Women pairs seems to be a balanced pair which operates at the high abstraction and individual person level to named individuals humans - so it seems to have a kind mutli level cohesion - or something like that. Good/Bad seems far too Broad to have much meaning - I place these concepts ate the highest level of abstraction - near the god point on the plurality model - essentially indefinable and immeasurable. These high level terms are usually used by people who have no real idea of what they are talking about or by tyrants manipulating weak minded people. Good” “Right Side of History" https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Claude_Adrien_Helv%C3%A9tius Claude Adrien Helvétius...We have no freedom of choice between good and evil. There is no such thing as absolute right – ideas of justice and injustice change according to customs.

But then we get the same level of abstraction pairs which have various degrees of vagueness

and then we get pairs where one side or the other is at a different level of abstraction

Clean your Room/Don't have a Messy House, Never try to discourage thinking for you are sure to succeed/Think Openly and encourage others to think

But the other thing I was noticing was expressing the positive or negative on either side of the pair. In the 4 binary examples used mainly by binaries - there does not need to be a DEFINITE NOT on one side or the other. It is just a binary comparison of ideas. So this means - that even if I have definite Not on one side I am not obliged to find a "Positive" expression for the other side - I could have any concept - a general not or a specific positive. The Not is not "Negative" it is just "Opposite"

Never discourage debate - could be paired with - Don't run away or Allow Time to argue or don't get angry or Listen to people and let them speak or many other things at different levels expressed in "positive" or definite Not type ways.

So this is roughly something like this:

God Point
Highly Abstract
In the middle Somewhere
Detailed
Very Specific

Same/Different
Group/Individual
Us/Them
A Man/A Woman

What is interesting for me is that I have found a new way of describing the binary switch routine that binaries use to demonstrate their hypocrisy and incoherence. It is obvious when you see the reporting of the Massacre of Jews by the muslims and reflects the kind of thinking of Pope Urban VIII. A kind of pig-ignorant tribal binary thinking with extremism , nepotism and corruption - very much like we see now with Women and Black tribal types supported by weak minded men.

Let as look at deaths and how deaths are abstracted to the same level and compared.

So you can see how the ABC, Penny Wong, the United Nations and many others do a “False Equivalence” where they ignore the detailed massacres and horrific deliberate actions and abstract it to “Deaths” as if they are the same type of event.

This also shows the Binary switch routine for the Us/Them , Group/Individual pairs. White men are grouped as the enemy and then every individual white man who commits a crime reinforces the group mentality - the entitled victim narrative and demonization of white men. But it also works in the other direction where every woman who commits a crime is considered an outlier and an Individual and Not a member of the group - this way the Women and Black tribal types maintain their constant resentment of all white men and ignore women and black criminals, liars and psychopaths and keep demonizing white men and reinforced the entitled victim narrative, constant outrage and passive aggressive rush to judgement and abuse of white men.

I have already explained this in many other articles - this shift in focus - the change in Emphasis and Omission - the common forms of lying that Greens/Labour politicians and the ABC do - the shift in the time dimensions - now and the past - the permanent resentment - the entitled victim narrative - the self and the universe - individual victims - all muslim/women victims (but not white men or Jews) - reducing things to absurd simplicities (reductio ad absurdum) - all of the corrupt discussion and debate techniques of binaries, tyrants and corrupt people - ignoring the full debate and wide ranging issues for their preferred emphasis and omission (their blind spot - their willful ignorance). For example stupid black women vice presidents saying - lets ignore everything I have done up to now and only concentrate on what I say I am going to do tomorrow. TRUST ME.

All of these things need some kind of balanced debate. That’s why I developed the Focus Model.

I am reluctant to explore this much further because of the infinites and it is starting to feel a little too dogmatic - besides, many people have explored this at length and I think it is adequately covered at this stage. It is important to note that people do the same kind of thing with expressions like “Free Speech”, “protest” “Demonstrations” “Mob Violence and Intimidation” - they have lost sight of definitions and meanings and are using binary switch routines like those I describe above (and elsewhere) - Greens/Labour , ABC and other binary extremists are particularly incoherent and are a threat to social cohesion and coherent debates.

The Written Apology

It is about time I apologized - for everything. After all - everything is my fault and none of you are responsible for anything.

So I just want to be absolutely sure that I use the correct words to apologize with - that I specify exactly what I have done and use the exact words necessary to apologize and appease your sentiments. So you have to do the work - specify your grievances and blame - exactly who is responsible for what - all the crimes that I have committed - the crime of not taking the knee - the crime of not giving you all my money - the crime of being toxic and evil. Did I commit the crime of asking people to think? Did I commit the crime of daring to question? Spend some time on this - in your own time - and at your own cost - until you get these words exactly correct - a monument to history - the greatest apology of all time. Reconciliation, Peace, Reparations, Victim statements, etc.

So to all the women who expect an apology - can you write down all the words of this apology that I need to sign and publicly declare so you can then relive yourself from the burden of victimhood.

To all the blacks - write down the exact words and phrasings which I am to sign to alleviate you of constant whinging and demands. Is it something like I am Bad - You are Good or I am Perpetrator - You are Victim - now give me everything I want forever? Is that the extent of your ability to communicate? You blacks that hate Australia - why not take off all your clothes - move out of your houses - stop drinking water and eating food that is provided to you - go into the bush and live off the land without stealing, killing and raping people. Can you do that? You will have to give up the grog and drugs but you can continue child rape and sex and your normal cultural practices and traditions (as encouraged by the United Nations). You can welcome yourself to your own country every day - way out there in the outback. If you get sick - don't go to hospitals - get your witch doctors to do smoking ceremonies for you - to heal you with ancient spiritual magic that you have been using for 1 million years - as you call yourself "The oldest culture on the planet"

People have told me You are bad Man - What is your reaction?

Journalists, rumormonger and writers will often allege things against someone by saying people have told me that You are pig-headed", etc. I am now going to work through this technique to explore what is going on. Most people do not understand this technique and many reporters use it - especially against politicians or celebrities they want to demean and attack. I consider it a kind of sleaze journalism and slander very akin to the questions "When did you realize that not beating your wife was a good idea?" The quality of reporting in places like the ABC, Guardian and anywhere dominated by women, blacks and other Tribalists is very much on the decline largely because of failures in the education system and a kind "Crusading heroic" intentional stance taken by many smug self-righteous women, blacks, other tribal identity binary types and weak minded men playing various roles in the drama triangle.

The point being that - framing questions requires some thought - and I have noticed a lack of thought generally in journalists lately.

A Socratic Dialogue.

J: I have spoken to many people and they say Margaret Thatcher is pig-headed.

A: I am not Margaret Thatcher.

J: Well some people have said the same about you.

A: Who exactly.

J: People in the streets and in the Pubs. They said that you were tough and hard headed.

A: Why did they say that?

J: I don't know they just felt like telling me things because they knew I was a journalist.

A: Did they tell you why they were saying that?

J: No - and I did not ask - I just listened.

A: Did they say they could substantiate their feelings and opinions?

J: It was my job to listen and get information - and the information flowed freely - I did not pressure them.

A: When did they say this - after a drink or before a drink? What do you know about these people?

J: Well I don't have all their details - but it was many people - not just a few, but many.

A: How many?

J: Lots.

A: How many people did you not speak to - was it more or less than the people you spoke to.

J: Well obviously we could not speak to everybody to get everyone's opinions of you but the people who did speak with us had strong opinions. I am not a statistician - I am a journalist.

A: They knew you were journalists? What question did you ask them?

J: I asked then what do they think of you.

A: So you did not ask them what kind of job I was doing or whether the work I have done is worth while?

J: No - well, maybe - but they did not want to focus on that.

A: So why did you ask these people these questions?

J: Look there is no need to interrogate me - this interview is about You not Me.

A: Really - you think this interview is not about you? Why not?

J: I am journalist and it is my job to ask the questions and it is your job to answer them.

A: So are you saying that it is an interrogation of me and not you - is that it?

J: Well not an interrogation but more of a conversation.

A: Is it? Is that what we are doing now?

J: I don't know - I feel a bit confronted and offended.

A: Why exactly?

J: Well - you are questioning me and it seems a little like an attack on my professionalism as a journalist and maybe even me as an individual.

A: Have you examined our conversation so far? What exactly have I said that could be considered an attack - is it because I ask questions to you directly?

J: Maybe - I don't really know.

A: So you talk to some people in the streets and pubs - who I do not know and cannot talk to - you do not know their background or who they are or what motives they may or may not have - how much they know - what they have read or understand about things and then ask them to express a personal opinion about me. It is not like I can verify anything you are saying or even tell whether it is you saying these things to me personally or other people - who refuse to speak to me directly.

J: Yes but ..

A: Then you ask me to respond to these personal reflections and allegations against me with out any right of questioning the people who have these ideas or talk to them directly and have a conversation to try to explore the ideas. - Do you have their names and addresses? I do have an office whose jobs is to take questions and try to help those people who ask questions or have concerns about the job I am doing.

J: Of course not!

A: So your view is that your job is to bring these things forward to me and see what my reaction is?

J: Yes but ..

A: So - for example - If I had heard rumours that you are a fool and very ignorant and then put that to you - how would you respond? It is not really a "presumption of innocence" or a "fair trial" is it? It is more like "Hear-Say" and Slander - don't you think? It is the same weight I would give a suggestion that you have heard rumours that I am a "Good Guy" - it is meaningless. You can give me your opinion or you can quote someone directly - but even then it is still a meaningless conversation except to stroke or denigrate someone personally. I am not really being judged on specific actions or deeds - am I? - rather than by unspecific and vague feelings or unsubstantiated allegations. The actions can be judged - for example - removing the presumption of innocence in domestic violence legislation of Men by Andrew Barr and Making Orders against men based on allegation alone in Australian Courts - or legalizing drugs by Andrew Barr or by legislating that Animals are sentient by Andrew Barr or Penny Wong giving Australian Taxpayer money to terrorist organizations and their sympathizers - these are specific actions which can be questioned and discussed - regardless of whether people think they are "Good People" or "Bad People".

Do you understand?

J:Not really.

Definite Not - Pearson Method - Sun and Earth

I am harping on this method of mine because I think most people do not understand it and because I believe it can help debates and analysis.

The world is dominated by non-thinkers and those few people who try to think sometimes struggle to make sense of things.

The example below compares the Sun and the Earth conceptually - how we describe and measure them.

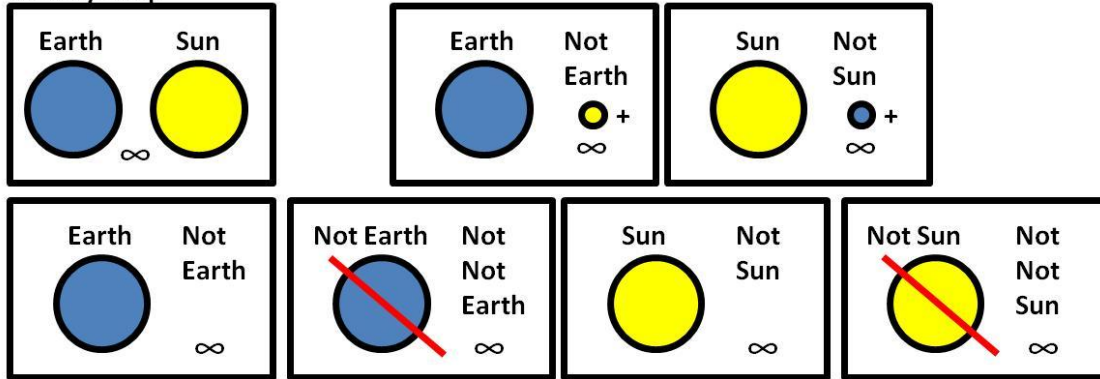

Most people think that the Sun and Earth exists in an infinity of things - the universe. So they compare them as two things in an "infinity soup".

Now I will try to define, definitely exactly - enough to say what the Earth is. This is not easy because the earth extends way out beyond the atmosphere to include the electromagnetic field and gravity. So I have to make and arbitrary definition of exactly what I describe the earth as - and then the infinite not is everything else not included.

The point being that - and note this well - the infinite not of Earth also includes the Sun - which I am yet to define. So I end up with another concept - the Definite Not Earth definition. I need to define these as a kind definite exclusion list. The Earth is not the Sun. The Earth is Not the Moon. The Earth is not Jupiter and so on. I can include general concepts and say the Earth is not a Star.

So the point is that the definition of the Earth has been pulled out infinity and so has the Definite Not Earth. Each of their balancing Infinities is a different set of infinities. Each infinity set is different. I am making the infinity sets explicit and in context.

Infinity Soup

The next step of my process is to make two 4 box models - one for the Earth combinations and one for the Sun combinations. These boxes include the paired ideas of DEFINITE IS and DEFINITE IS NOT. This significantly reduces the number of possible comparisons I have to make and keeps things within some cohesive and contained definitions which tend to be managed better as pairs.

This allows the 16 combinations to be explored and we can check our incoherent definitions - see what we can learn and check our assumptions, definitions and mistakes.

For example does the earth definition include the radiation of the Sun or Not? Are the Earth and Sun’s gravity included in the definitions and where? Where are the boundaries? Is the midpoint between the Earth and the Sun the gravity boundary or is it much closer to the center of sun? How much gravity would we include measure and define for each object? How much would we exclude?

The earth does not generate sunlight yet much of it is bathed in sunlight - is that part of the earth’s definition or the sun’s definition? Would we make sunlight a definite not of earth - why not? Yet we would not make sunlight a definite is of Earth? Why not?

It is possible that I could exclude the concept of ‘Sunlight’ from all the “Positive” definitions of Earth, Not Earth, Sun Not Sun and leave it in each of the infinite not sets - we considered the idea of sunlight but it is not relevant to 4 definitions - only the remaining infinite sets.

If you understand these ideas you are thinking at level 3. Binaries and level 1 thinkers will not be interested or capable.

The Problems as We see Them

A number of people in the world have been concentrating on the problems as we see them. These are large problems which seem to affect much of Society. What does being human mean - how have we evolved and why? These are big questions. What is wrong? What is Right? Where did these ideas come from?

Jordan is trying to psychoanalyze human society - he sees a deep mental illness like he has seen in many patients over the years and he is trying to understand what is happening on a wider scale. His hypotheses includes the idea of the bible stories evolving memes or stories to help shape the imagination of human to keep them on the "right" track. He hints at a "divine" intervention idea which is something outside the human experience and almost "god" like. Both Dan Dennett and Richard Dawkins tend to the reality ideas - "the Truth" other than the imagination, fantasies and biblical view of the world.

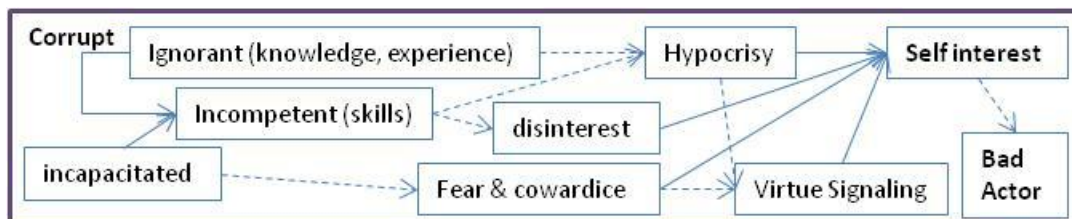

I developed a simple model to help frame my view of this.

Human Lifetime Evolution

Which highlights human ability to imagine and plan things - to play with stories and ideas and be motivated to act - rather than just react. This ability to plan ahead and anticipate imagined things is a major development for humans and leads to agriculture - planting things to eat, keeping animals to use and help feed us and keep us safe, build houses, get water and clothes and so on. We could call this human development and evolution. This is most advanced in "western" style countries.

I framed this in a wider context using my other models and ideas from others. I first highlighted what I saw as corruption - mainly pig-ignorant people - binary extremists - many who were constantly virtue signaling rather than addressing the reality - they were stuck in their own imagination of fighting imaginary dragons - despite their ignorance, lack of skills, incompetence, lack of experience or demonstrable success - casting themselves as heroes in a virtuous cause in the fight over death itself - the enemy. Hence the Drama Triangle of Victim, Perpetrator and Hero.

So while Jordan Peterson is portraying the biblical stories as important and possibly "Divine" and inherited wisdom - there needs to be some recognition of the danger of mandated texts or authorized “imagination” archetypes and memes. Hence we see the eager discussion between Jordan and Richard Dawkins. But we need to also mention Sam Harris who has pointed out another mandated text of authorized memes being the Muslim world’s views (multiple versions) - but to some extent the problem here is the tendency to substitute one book of imagination with another book of imagination and mandated texts because you think it is “better”. This may work for individuals but once tribalism breaks out the religious wars start all over.

From muslims we can see the desperate need to stay stuck in imagination and do barbaric things to other humans so they can go to a glorious death in an imagined heaven. For Muslims - killing people is their virtue signal to god. We see a difference between China, Russia and other low level tribal types - barbarians do not operate in this kind of metaphysical world of human imagination - they are pure tribal narcissists. I.e. China does not take over land in the South China sea and other places, threaten war, etc for “virtue” - they play the pure victim narrative “Victim of the West” (Passive Aggressive) of basic barbarian tribes - they have no metaphysical imaginative landscape in their barbaric minds. If you were to ask the Chinese, North Koreans or Russians what they are doing they would not say “Saving the World” or “Making the world a better place” or “Keeping us all safe from dragons” - they would simply answer - “We do whatever we like whenever we like”. These people are most closely related to the Barbarian hordes, Huns, murderous Khans - the weak minded tribal narcissists. It is in their DNA and culture and they tend to tyranny and have trouble breaking out from it (as we do now in Australia and other places).

The Entitled Victim Narrative often used by women and blacks is close to the Jungian Archetype of the “Innocent”. <https://www.dabblewriter.com/articles/the-innocent-archetype>
<https://metapathways.com/blog/innocent-archetype/>

Dan Dennett tried to explain more about the human condition to help people avoid the excesses of religious belief - not only Muslims but others who tend to ignore reality and stay stuck in heroic imagination. You do not need a religion - the idea that you need a religion is absurd and not founded on fact. Jordan suggests it might be an “historical wisdom” thing but that is like saying Tribalism and Cannibalism is a “good historical idea” a “meme” which survived for thousands of years. Or like the Australian Aborigines declare “We are the oldest human culture ever” - so let us all go walkabout like them.

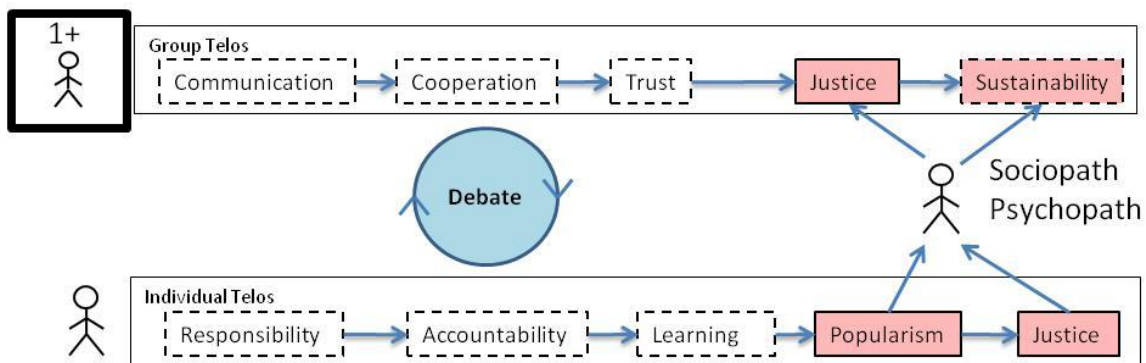

Thomas Sowell tried to educate black men to avoid the entitled victim narrative of tribal blacks.

Then we need to tie that in with Iain McGilchrist’s concerns about Left Brain dominance rather than Right brain discovery and exploration. So then we can have an idea that mandating certain types of imagination then become - rather than an exploration - a left brain dominated tyranny and authoritarianism. So imagination is a good idea - a meme which works - one of the most advanced developments in humanity - it is where we do exploring - inside our own heads. Seeing other imagined stories and other imaginations can help us develop our own individual skills in reality - art, music, architecture, farming, writing, reading, debating, poems, plays, etc. Imagination comes with a cost - we can imagine all kinds of things - including our own deaths - our mortality - this can lead to extremes - extreme anxiety or extremes about “keeping everyone safe” in the last virus pandemic. Hence Tyrannical Authoritarianism and “Mind Control police” in schools and universities - the dogma “experts” are killing a major human evolutionary development in their binary certain tyrannical way.

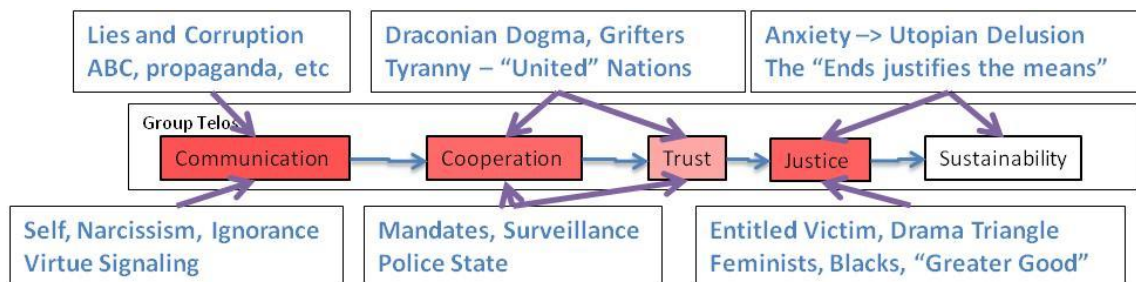

It is not that they think they are “Bad” - they are very uneducated and willfully ignorant - stuck in “heroic Imagination” - a constant delusion we see in narcissists everywhere.

But Muslims, Christians and other tyrannical dogmas tend to tyrannical authoritarianism - as we see now in Australia and many other places who tend to the Chinese, Russian and Muslim models of world domination cults - very much like Davos elites and others. Hence Draco and Solon.

Barbarians tend not to have even a basic group or individual Telos - everything is tribal, binary and extreme - them or us - kill or be killed. I developed my Telos models as a general mode of explaining humanity - the west - as I see it. These Telos allow the human groups and individuals to develop together - and hence the more detailed Plurality model. One of the problems is that we have an oversupply of narcissistic psychopaths and sociopaths in power - in politics and media - mainly playing “Hero Narratives” in the drama triangle and ignoring reality. They gain power by bribing people and soothing them with imagination of safety and glory - very much like “the sirens of the sea” who want to hypnotize weak minded people into submission. They are Deluded and hence Jordan Peterson’s concerns about mental illnesses. Bjorn Lomborg and Stephen Pinker have tried to debate and explain to people how well off we are and that we are doing well in food, safety and other things - a demonstrable reality - Not Imagination - this too was an attempt to wake up the drama triangle players - the binaries who are either constant victims (Entitled victim narrative - women and blacks tribal types) or constant heroes - “saving the planet” - “saving humanity itself from disaster”

My view is that the basic Telos has been corrupted over the last few decades - by many things which have been noted by others throughout history - Fat, Dumb and lazy complacency, Tyranny, “Being Good”, forgetting history (Bede’s Lament), ignorance, suppression of ideas and debate, drama triangle a break down in societal norms, a breakdown of the rule of law, tribal groups (lead by hysterical tribal women and blacks using the entitled victim narrative), nepotism and many other things.

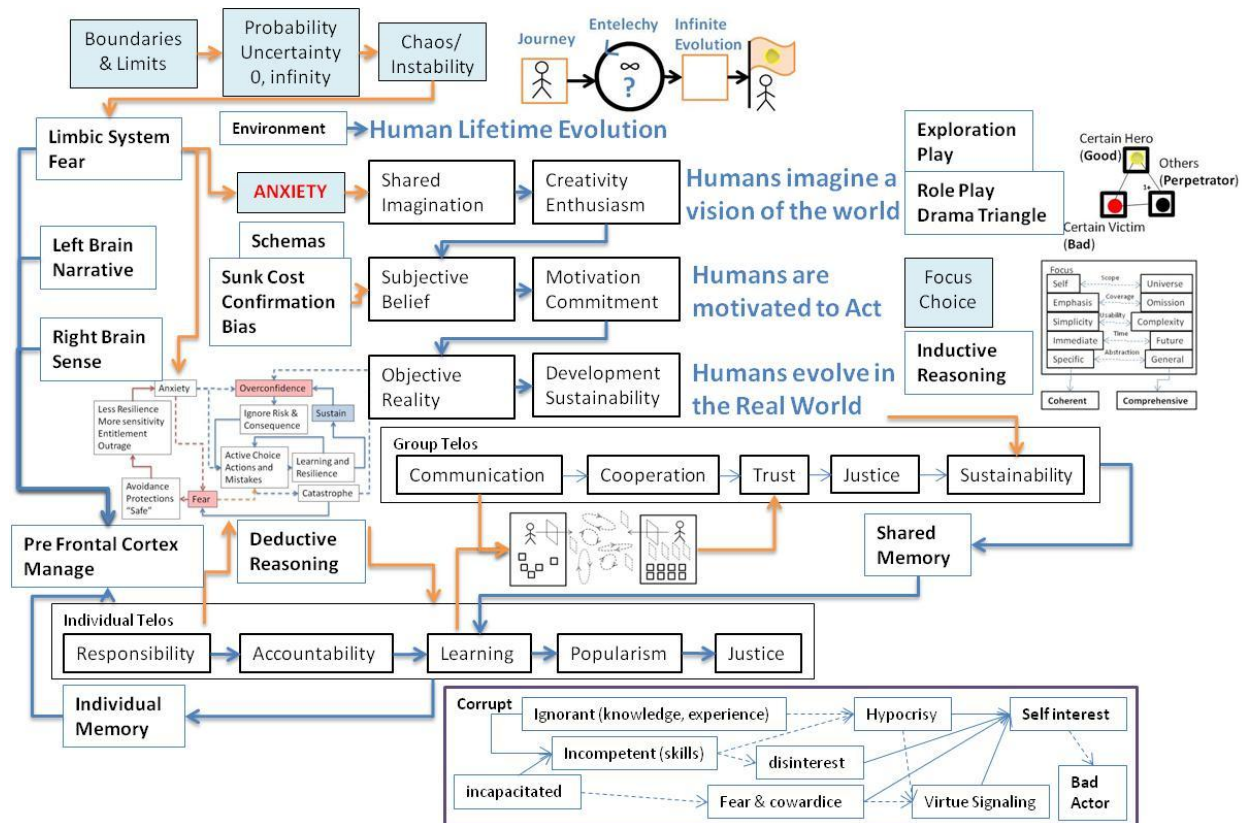

So I would hesitate to recommend a “Good Book” as being the greatest book of all wisdom - because the human condition is ongoing. I would also hesitate to recommend a certain solution - See Why Not A Humanist Manifesto <https://humanistman.com/wp-content/uploads/2021/08/Why-Not-A-Humanist-Manifesto.pdf> but imagination reality and choice all need to be kept in balance - to a very large extent this is Charles Darwin and Evolution. So while Jordan Peterson is concentrating on his area of expertise and concern - that is the narratives of imagination and the human mind - I am trying to pull all the threads from all the places together. For example - Imagination is important but the Massacres that have occurred in the past history and recently in Israel by Hamas Muslims - do not have to be imagined - they represent a very real reality of human behaviour - a real human behaviour that we need to be aware of - every bit as important to notice as an “imagined meme”.

As all things - a wide ranging discussion allows people to pull many ideas together and balance and compare things. This is an “idea of the west” - not an idea of religious extremists, muslims, Chinese, North Korea or Russia.

'Men are never so likely to settle a question rightly as when they discuss it freely. A government can interfere in discussion only by making it less free than it would otherwise be.' - Author(Thomas Babington Macaulay) Year[1830] Age(30) Source_Document(Southey's Colloquies on Society) Keyword(Humanism Communication Group)

We have large scale “Reality Denialism” at the moment in my view and I think Stephen Pinker, Niall Ferguson and Peter Turchin <https://peterturchin.com/> share similar concerns. My difference with some others who I have mentioned is that I do not need to place a Religious or “god” view to deal with the world - nor does my imagination need have to have biblical or “god” type stories. I can imagine much more than that.

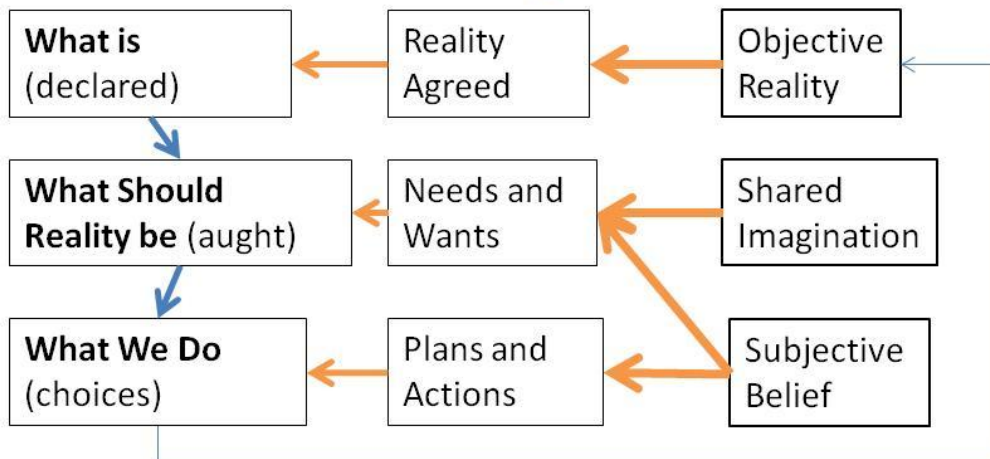

Richard Dawkins, Dan Dennett, Bret Weinstein and Jonathan Haidt bring us strong contributions in the ideas of how humans evolve - but for me it can be simply described as - whatever it is - it works - it sustains itself. Suitably vague and suitably certain of my definition.

In recent times - Jonathan Haidt, Bret Weinstein, John Anderson and Niall Ferguson are looking forwards to try to understand what to do next while at the same time integrating the past and their understanding of the past and human condition. Jordan Peterson has been one of the most active researchers in this area for at least a decade now and has produced an enormous amount of work which we should all be appreciative of.

To some extent I can put the Jordan Peterson and Richard Dawkins current archetype debate into my context. The stories of imagination and archetypes - the higher level abstractions and narratives can all occupy various places in imagination and belief and then these can be tested against reality. It does not mean they are "Truth" so much - because that is more of a "Tested against reality" idea (Karl Popper -Falsifiability) - instead they are ideas and we carry around in schemas and ideas in our heads from many places -not only religion but old wives tales, myths, fairy tales, songs, etc . It is the basis of science to test these various ideas against reality. For example - one thing I find strange is that many people buy animals as pets - they get the most aggressive and extremely vicious dogs as pets and believe that they are "safe" and "pets" when in reality most of them are predators waiting for a moment to strike out - as many do - and then the owner says "I had no idea that was going to happen". I.e. they believe that their "pet" - who is a trained animal and vicious dog - would "never hurt anyone". This is a frequent delusion amongst many people. They believe it. The extreme of this is that Andrew Barr - the local tyrant and deluded narcissist - has legislated that animals are "Sentient" and hence you can be fined and charged by police for offending or mistreating you sentient pet killer animal.

What are we Debating?

With some understanding of the problems as we see them I can further explore history to find other people who may have noticed things and explored things with their writing and work. From my understanding of history - we seem to have a lot to investigate from the late 1500s onwards.

Revealed Wisdom or Hard Work

I think Jordan Peterson places his certain doubt into the idea that divine wisdom exists - that there is something "above" humans in a divine sense. He suggests that the stories and narratives have some kind of "divine" inspiration. Personal revelation is something like this "Gosh I was so stupid for so long and I now have some idea of what I am talking about - finally I can think - but I am not sure".

Personal revelation is NOT universal - very few people get to have any idea - they die young, don't learn, are too busy, obsessed with self, drugs, wealth, etc.

I would put "wisdom ideas" with Mills "Utility" and Dawkins "memes" - if it works - it sticks - if it doesn't work - we try something else. It is not "Truth" and "Certainty" - it works.

While Jordan can abstract out "the Bible" stories he struggles to abstract out others stories from humans who are not infected with Moses Delusion. I.e. it is absurd to suggest my ideas are not worthy of discussion merely because I do not claim that a "God" told me what the "Truth" was.

This is a common idea and one which helps keep tyrants and certaintists under control. i.e. the idea is to have some doubt and put it somewhere - because the absence of doubt is dangerous. Now - I don't mind where Jordan Peterson - or anyone else - puts their doubt - as long as they have some (which Muslims, Barbarians and other binary extremists lack) - because in my view - certainty is a lemmings type inhumanity displayed by the weakest of humans.

One Thing I Know With Absolute Certainty Is Absolute Certainty Does Not Exist

<https://humanistman.com/wp-content/uploads/2019/07/Absolute-Certainty.pdf>

For people to assert the "divine inspiration" is an insult to people like me who do hard work.

One self indulgent fantasy I have been engaged in recently is to claim - "As Far as I know I am the First Person to think About Things This Way". My partner called me out on this. How absurd am I to Think no-one else as thought of this? The amount of work I have done to check and double check and see what people are thinking and writing is a NEVER ENDING TASK. I can never check everyone's thoughts and ideas and claim "divine right". Like Leibnitz and Newton claiming "who was on first"?

All I can do is try to explain my ideas and why I Think they might be important - for humanity - not ME - but Everyone to at least be aware of - NOT MANDATED - but have access to the ideas and discussion.

<https://www.thomasedison.org/edison-quotes>

- "I have not failed. I've just found 10,000 ways that won't work."
- "There are no rules here -- we're trying to accomplish something."
- "Genius is one percent inspiration, ninety-nine percent perspiration."
- "There's a better way to do it - Find it."
- "Many of life's failures are people who did not realize how close they were to success when they gave up."
- "We often miss opportunity because it's dressed in overalls and looks like work."

Or when Columbus sailed to the Americas while not knowing for sure what would happen, people lambasted his accomplishments as either "God" based or "obvious - now that we know"

So fuck you - you ignorant pigs - hard work is hard work and when you do hard work you might find out some things and learn. Calling on your fucking "God" is your fucking insanity. Go and ask your God to cure the Cancer that he has inflicted on the world you stupid cunts or send yourself to certain heaven now! Tribal Blacks and Women - get of your dumb asses and support and engage with people who think - they may be the ones to help you and your future.

https://en.wikisource.org/wiki/The_Histories_\(Tacitus\)) I am entering on the history of a period rich in disasters, frightened in its wars, torn by civil strife, and even in peace full of horrors. Four emperors perished by the sword. There were three civil wars; there were more with foreign enemies; there were often wars that had both characters at once. There was success in the East, and disaster in the West. There were disturbances in Illyricum; Gaul wavered in its allegiance; Britain was thoroughly subdued and immediately abandoned; the tribes of the Suevi and the Sarmatae rose in concert against us; the Dacians had the glory of inflicting as well as suffering defeat; the armies of Parthia were all but set in motion by the cheat of a counterfeit Nero. Now too Italy was prostrated by disasters either entirely novel, or that recurred only after a long succession of ages; cities in Campania's richest plains were swallowed up and overwhelmed; Rome was wasted by conflagrations, its oldest temples consumed, and the Capitol itself fired by the hands of citizens. Sacred rites were profaned; there was profligacy in the highest ranks; the sea was crowded with exiles, and its rocks polluted with bloody deeds. In the capital there were yet worse horrors. Nobility, wealth, the refusal or the acceptance of office, were grounds for accusation, and virtue ensured destruction. The rewards of the informers were no less odious than their crimes; for while some seized on consulships and priestly offices, as their share of the spoil, others on procuratorships, and posts of more confidential authority, they robbed and ruined in every direction amid universal hatred and terror. Slaves were bribed to turn against their masters, and freedmen to betray their patrons; and those who had not an enemy were destroyed by friends. Yet the age was not so barren in noble qualities, as not also to exhibit examples of virtue. Mothers accompanied the flight of their sons; wives followed their husbands into exile; there were brave kinsmen and faithful sons in law; there were slaves whose fidelity defied even torture; there were illustrious men driven to the last necessity, and enduring it with fortitude; there were closing scenes that equalled the famous deaths of antiquity. Besides the manifold vicissitudes of human affairs, there were prodigies in heaven and earth, the warning voices of the thunder, and other intimations of the future, auspicious or gloomy,

 54. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Crimean%E2%80%93Nogai_slave_raids_in_Eastern_Europe Crimean–Nogai slave raids in Eastern Europe were the slave raids, for over three centuries, conducted by the military of the Crimean Khanate and the Nogai Horde primarily in lands controlled by Russia[b] and Poland-Lithuania[c] as well as other territories, often under the sponsorship of the Ottoman Empire, which provided slaves for the Crimean slave trade. Their main purpose was the capture of humans and consequent enslavement,[1] most of whom were exported to the Ottoman slave markets in Constantinople or elsewhere in the Middle East via the Black Sea slave trade. Genoese and Venetian merchants controlled the slave trade from Crimea to Western Europe. The raids were a drain on the human and economic resources of eastern Europe. They largely targeted the "Wild Fields" – the steppe and forest-steppe land which extends about five hundred or so miles north of the Black Sea and which now contains most of the population of modern-day south-eastern Ukraine and south-western Russia. The campaigns also played an important role in the development of the Cossacks.[2][3][4][5] Estimates of the number of people affected vary: Polish historian

Bohdan Baranowski assumed that the 17th-century Polish–Lithuanian Commonwealth (present-day Poland, Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, Ukraine, and Belarus) lost an average of 20,000 yearly and as many as one million in total from 1474 to 1694.[6] Mikhail Khodarkhovsky estimates that 150,000 to 200,000 people were abducted from Russia in the first half of the 17th-century.[7]The first major raid occurred in 1468 and was directed into the south-eastern border of Poland.[1] The last raid into Hungary took place in 1717.[8] In 1769, the last major Tatar raid, which took place during the Russo-Turkish War, saw the capture of 20,000 slaves

This most terrible moment lasted not much more than two hours in the city, as the wind unexpectedly picked up and furiously spread the fire. While Count von Pappenheim is said to have ordered at first that the citizens and inhabitants be made anxious and fearful, later the vile rabble of soldiers showed no discretion and would not stop. By around ten o'clock in the morning everything was engulfed in flames, and by ten o'clock that night, the entire city, along with its beautiful town hall and all its churches, lay in ashes, just a heap of stones. Then, to avoid being burned with the city, the Imperial marauders had to flee the city and retreat to their camps. On a single day, this renowned and noble city, an ornament of the entire land, was seen to go up in smoke and flames, and the inhabitants who remained with their wives and children were held captive and led before their enemies. Their cries were heard far and wide, as the wind spread the flames and ashes to Wanzleben, Egeln, and other locations.⁵ [. . .] The women, young women, daughters, and maids, those who had no husbands, parents, or relatives who could ransom them, could still seek help and advice among high-ranking officers. This led to much evil, for some were raped and dishonored, others kept as concubines

The 1690s marked the lowest point of the so-called Little Ice Age, a period of cold and wet weather affecting Europe in the second half of the 17th century.

Spain and Scotland in particular experienced famine; the harvest failed in 1695, 1696, 1698 and 1699 and an estimated 5-15% of the population starved to death
